Urban sketching is a tree with its middle chopped away to accommodate Seattle's ubiquitous power lines. It's about a couple of women chatting over coffee, or about workers roofing the house next door. It's about an excavator filling a hole where a cherry tree once stood. Or the Tibetan monastery I drive by frequently that I couldn't resist because it's bright orange. Urban sketching is a string band performing at a local farmers' market – or perhaps in Villefranche-sur-Mer.
