The Moon Maid - Wikipedia

All right, so Edgar Rice Burroughs is definitely a guilty pleasure. These days any science fiction of Burroughs could easily fit the sub-genre Steam Punk. But this is the real deal. I liked The Moon Maid partially because of its peripheral connection to the John Carter books. In this world John Carter went to Mars decades before.

The Moon Maid: Edgar Rice Burroughs - Book Review Posted on December 28, 2014 May 8, 2019 by Mike Brooks It seems that Edgar Rice Burroughs and H.G. Wells both held the belief that WWI, or as it was known then as The Great War or The War to End All Wars was just a preamble to bigger conflict and that the world powers would eventually toss the planet into chaos on an even more global scale.

THE MOON MAID: Very similar to THE PRINCESS OF MARS, although ERB's mild self-plagiarism doesn't particularly bother me in this case, in that I found THE MOON MAID to be something of an improvement. At least THE MOON MAID tries to be more scientific in terms of space travel, but of course the science is all bogus and horribly out of date.
